Fall 2026 Semester Course

DT876 Mariology and Reformation (3cr)

COURSE DESCRIPTION

A multitude of theological vectors meet in the study of Mariology. Questions posed in disciplines such as Christology, Scripture, Tradition and anthropology are being intensified when confronted with the Christian understanding of Mary's role in the life and works of Jesus Christ and the Church. The course investigates the biblical testimony to Mary, the Marian dogmas and attempts to confront these with liberation and feminist theology and intends to sensitize the student the ecumenical dimensions of Mariology. The lecture schedule will be adjusted to the actual number of STL students enrolled in Mariology and the Reformation: Martin Luther, Calvin, Martin Chemnitz, Robert Bellarmine, Francisco Suarez, Council of Trent, Catechismus Romanus, etc.

REV. EMERY
DE GAAL, Ph.D.

Fr. de Gaal is a Professor of Dogmatic Theology at USML.
