

MUNDELEIN SEMINARY ANNUAL REPORT

2016

FROM THE OFFICE OF THE RECTOR/PRESIDENT

GREETINGS FROM MUNDELEIN SEMINARY!

Our mission at Mundelein is simply stated but profoundly engaging: we form parish priests who are prepared and excited to bring others to Christ.

In the words of the Second Vatican Council, a seminary should function as the heart of the diocese it serves. It provides a bridge between the individual parishes, led by their parish priests, and the entire diocesan community, led by its bishop. Furthermore, a diocesan priest himself should serve as a bridge between his people and the Lord, helping them to enrich their own spiritual journeys. This triad of "heart," "bridge," and "parish priest" beautifully captures both the reason that Mundelein Seminary exists and the mission the Holy Spirit impels us to pursue.

Mundelein is home to 200 seminarians from 35 dioceses across the country and around the world. But what they all have in common is that they are preparing to serve a specific community that is centered on a local Church in obedience to their bishop. In other words, every man at Mundelein Seminary has a heart that is burning to serve as a parish priest.

But the modern Church is dynamically changing. The parish of today can be vastly different from that of a generation or even a decade ago. As smaller parishes are consolidated into single parishes of much larger extent, as social media becomes increasingly more pervasive, as more and more Catholics are raised without basic catechesis, and as the pressures of a secular culture multiply moral challenges, a parish priest needs to be a man who is intellectually well-grounded in the Truth. He must be socially capable of not only sending a tweet but also personally interacting with people from all walks of life and in every conceivable pastoral situation. Above all, he must be a man of deep interior prayer. At Mundelein, our academic and formation teams integrate their missions into a common goal of forming priests with precisely these qualities.

This annual report is a reflection of your prayerful support of our seminarians as they prepare in mind, body and spirit to serve our Church as parish priests. The seminarians, priests and dedicated lay women and men you encounter in these pages are all driven by a single mission.

Together with you, in Christ, we are Mundelein.
We form parish priests.

Yours in the Heart of Christ,

Very Reverend John Kartje
Rector/President

Sometimes Doing a Good Thing Involves a Haircut

BY JOYCE DURIGA

PHOTOGRAPH BY KAREN CALLOWAY/CHICAGO CATHOLIC

Cheryl Eid lives on the streets in Chicago's Uptown neighborhood, and on a brisk November Saturday morning, she was in the hall at St. Thomas of Canterbury Church, 4827 N. Kenmore Ave., having breakfast and getting her hair cut.

"I just want a trim," she said. "You know, when you're living on the street, it's hard to maintain hygiene, appearance."

Eid was one of many Uptown residents who, on Nov. 14, took advantage of free haircuts arranged by Radley Alcantara, an archdiocesan seminarian studying at the University of Saint Mary of the Lake/ Mundelein Seminary. This was the second year Alcantara arranged the free haircuts at the church. He calls it Angel Hair Ministries.

The idea came a few years ago, when he was studying Spanish in Ecuador and helped out at a Franciscan parish that had a ministry of providing free haircuts to the poor in the community. They also provided meals.

"When I came back a couple of summers ago I said, 'I wanna do this in Chicago,' Alcantara told the Catholic New World.

He chose November to hold the event because it's usually cold outside and the gathering would provide an opportunity for residents to get warm. Alcantara also wanted to build community so started the event with breakfast and ended with lunch.

Volunteers helped with all parts of the event, including washing hair and helping people peruse donated coats and clothing. Everything for the event was donated — from the food and decorations to the professional salon chairs and hair cutting supplies. Alcantara also raised funds to buy anything extra that they needed. Volunteers — including a few seminarians — cut hair for the morning.

"I practiced cutting hair on the seminarians so I could cut hair well here," Alcantara said.

St. Thomas of Canterbury already has an outreach ministry that includes a soup kitchen twice a week, a food pantry and a clothes closet, so for Father Tirso Villaverde, parish pastor, Alcantara's idea fit right in.

"They have been very appreciative of it because they need it and just the personal attention that they've been getting, it's something that many of these people usually don't get," Villaverde said of the people they serve. "These are God's people, and these are the ones who are forgotten."

"Just the personal attention that they've been getting, it's something that many of these people usually don't get. These are God's people, and these are the ones who are forgotten."

Cheryl McNary came for breakfast at 6 a.m. and was staying all morning and through lunchtime. She's a regular at the church. What did the event mean to her?

"It means the world to me. If it means that much to me, can you imagine what it means to everyone else? I do have a home. I'm kind of stable," she said. "But there's a lot of people who have no home."

Mundelein Connections

Meet Father Randy Timmerman, Class of 1993 and Priest of the Diocese of Madison

While Father Randy Timmerman was growing up in the small town of Dickeyville, Wisconsin, he maintained a strong connection to the Catholic faith. He participated in parish life on a daily basis and attended Holy Name Seminary, a nearby diocesan high school during the weekdays. His devotion led him to attend a college seminary in the Twin Cities for a little more than a year, but he didn't feel the Call of the Lord intensely and soon transferred to the University of Wisconsin and received his bachelor's degree in elementary education.

After graduating, Father Timmerman traveled to Europe, taught in England, and traveled alone with a backpack for four months, beginning to settle into the voice of the Lord, once again reawakening to the gift of His love. This daily reassuring presence led him to discern the call of seminary when he returned home. At Mundelein, Father Timmerman's heart was finally at peace.

"I have tremendous gratitude for Mundelein," says Father Timmerman. "For the brotherhood, the honesty, the friendship and the joy of going through the discernment process together, and sharing the faith and the reflections on why we were all there — to answer the Call of the Lord."

Endowed with His Spirit, Mundelein Seminary acts out of love for the Catholic faith and a desire to ensure the readiness of its next generation of parish priests. With the support of our sending Bishops, faithful friends and parish communities, we can continue to serve as the "Heart of the Diocese" by providing formation for the future of the Priesthood.

Father Timmerman's time at Mundelein shaped him into the priest he is today at his parish at St. Denis in Madison, Wisconsin, staying close to the Lord in prayer and letting the gift of the Eucharist draw him closer to His love. Father Timmerman continues to fall deeper in love with the Lord, His people, and their stories, celebrations and burdens.

"I have tremendous gratitude for Mundelein. For the brotherhood, the honesty, the friendship and the joy of going through the discernment process together, and sharing the faith and the reflections on why we were all there — to answer the Call of the Lord."

"That is a means by which the Lord continues to prune and draw me closer to Him," says Father Timmerman. "Despite situations of hardship, the call of the Lord will bring you tremendous peace and delight."

DEAR FRIEND,

What a gift you have given to the world! Your prayers and donations to Mundelein Seminary help us form the next generation of parish priests. But what is a parish priest? What makes him unique? We all have our own stories to answer those questions. A parish priest is the one there for the community, for the lonely, for the lost. He is the guide, the shepherd that helps give us a perspective from the Gospels, and leads us into a deeper relationship with Christ. He works to inspire us, one person at a time. That is a powerful thing.

Our department exists at Mundelein Seminary to tell everyone we can about the impact of a parish priest. Over the years, we have created a tremendous community of supporters that is now more than 20,000 strong.

Our rector, Father John Kartje, has given us all a charge to continue the momentum of Mundelein. We seek to tell as many people as possible about the great things that are happening here. Our formation program is founded in tradition with extraordinary students and dedicated faculty and staff. This is a special place with so many stories to tell: Stories from the seminarians themselves, from our alumni who work in parishes all over the world, and stories of our supporters and what bonds them to the mission of Mundelein.

Throughout this coming year, we will bring you many stories so that you can see and hear how your support is making an impact.

Every day, I come to work thrilled that I get to talk to people about one of the most important missions on the planet: supporting the men called to be parish priests. These men are dedicating their lives to serve others as a disciple of Christ. We want our parish priests to be so many things: charismatic, passionate, have integrity, humble, faithful, inspiring, persevering, positive, flexible and driven. So many of our parish priests illustrate many, if not all of those qualities.

I look forward to sharing more of their stories in the weeks and months to come. Be sure to visit us at usml.edu, sign up for our email newsletter, or check us out on Facebook, Twitter or Instagram to stay connected.

Thank you again for your support and dedication to Mundelein Seminary. This is an exciting place at an exciting time.

Formed in tradition. Trained in compassion. Prepared to shepherd.

We are Mundelein. We form parish priests.
