

Dean's Biography

Ted Whapham brings over a decade of teaching and administrative experience to the University of Saint Mary's community and the School of Parish Leadership and Evangelization. He has held higher education leadership positions at Catholic universities in Miami, Dallas, and Kansas City.

He earned his Ph.D. in Historical and Systematic Theology as well as a Master's degree in Theology from Catholic University of America in Washington DC and a Bachelor's of Arts Degree in Religious Studies from the University of Dayton.

He is the author or editor of three books and multiple articles focusing on the ministry formation, practical theology and the theology of Wolfhart Pannenberg. His latest volume Transforming Ministry Formation, co-edited with Marti Jewell and Edward Hahnenberg, is published by Paulist Press and has been selected by the USCCB to be a part of a national reading and discussion group on lay ministry formation.

###

About University of Saint Mary of the Lake at Mundelein Seminary:

The University of Saint Mary of the Lake is the home to Roman Catholic theological education located within the Archdiocese of Chicago. The University maintains schools and programs that prepare students for ministry: Mundelein Seminary, The Pontifical Faculty of Theology, and now the new School of Parish Leadership and Evangelization.

To learn more about USML, visit www.usml.edu.